A similar procedure shall be adopted for the preparation of Travelling

Allowance bills, overtime bills, and contingent bills other than those payable to third parties by clubbing the same kind of transactions on the same day in one bill. In the case of amounts debitable to more than one major head of account, separate bills shall be prepared in respect of amounts debitable to each such head of account. In respect of charges debitable to plan expenditure, a separate bill shall be prepared.".

By order of the Governor,
P. SAHADEVAN,
Additional Secretary (Finance) to Government.

Explanatory Note

(This note is not part of the amendment. But is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The number of vouchers handled by the treasuries is on the increase and it has become necessary to devise measures to lessen the work load in the treasuries as well as in the Departmental Offices. From the data collected by the Accountant General it is reported that the vouchers of different types viz. pay and allowances, travelling allowances contingencies, miscellaneous payments, overtime bills etc. drawn by the same Drawing Officer on the same date can be included under the same category of transactions. This has necessitated some changes to the relevant rules in Kerala Treasury Code. Hence this amendment.
